Township of Stirling-Rawdon Welcomes Shelley Stedall as Chief Administrative Officer

The Township of Stirling-Rawdon is pleased to announce the appointment of Shelley Stedall as Chief Administrative Officer (CAO), effective August 26, 2025.

Ms. Stedall brings a wealth of experience in municipal administration and public service. She is a seasoned municipal treasurer with over 30 years of experience in rural and small urban municipalities, as well as having served as a senior municipal financial advisor with the Ministry of Municipal Affairs and Housing (MMAH).

Her career in municipal government spans both eastern and western Ontario, working with single and lower-tier municipalities. Ms. Stedall currently serves as Past President of the Municipal Finance Officers' Association (MFOA), having completed three terms as President and serving on the Board of Directors for over 20 years. She has also contributed to professional development through her work as a course marker and content contributor for several AMCTO programs, and has delivered numerous seminars and training sessions, including the MFOA/ Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) budgeting workshop series.

Ms. Stedall's extensive background in municipal finance, long-term planning, and community development aligns with the Township's vision for sustainable and strategic growth. Her experience includes municipal budgeting, safeguarding financial assets, and streamlining administrative processes to improve efficiency while maintaining high-quality public service.

"We are pleased to welcome Shelley Stedall to our team as Chief Administrative Officer," said Stirling-Rawdon Mayor Bob Mullin. "Her extensive background in municipal services, leadership in public administration, and dedication to community well-being make her an excellent choice for this role. We are confident that her expertise and vision will help guide Stirling-Rawdon toward continued growth and success."

Ms. Stedall shared her enthusiasm about joining the Township and leading the municipal administration team.

"I'm honoured to take on the role of Chief Administrative Officer for Stirling-Rawdon," said Stedall. "I look forward to working collaboratively with Council, staff, and the community to strengthen municipal services and support the Township's continued growth. I bring a deep sense of commitment and enthusiasm to this new chapter and am excited to serve the residents and businesses of Stirling-Rawdon. It's a privilege to work with a community that demonstrates such pride and strong civic engagement."

The Township of Stirling-Rawdon looks forward to the valuable contributions Ms. Stedall will bring in her new role as CAO.

Bob Mullin, Mayor
