To ensure a safe and friendly environment the Stirling-Rawdon & District Recreation Centre asks that you observe the above rules. Anyone breaking these rules will receive a warning and if they continue to break the rules they will be asked to leave the facility by arena staff.

Enjoy Your Skating Session!

Recreation is an investment for life.

Public skating times run every Sunday from 1 till 2:20 and there is no charge.

We would like to thank all the advertisers inside the arena for sponsoring Public skate and making it free to the public. Generally public skating begins in October and runs through until mid-March with a couple of blacked out weekends due to a couple of tournaments every year. Any other cancellations due to inclement weather/break downs etc. will be posted as soon as possible.
